Discussion and possible selection of a project for Fiscal Year 2015 CDGB Grant Funding.

Mr. Urban explained to the council that the public hearing for the 2015 CDBG Grant Funding needed to be held again because there were a couple of errors in the advertising and HUD is very strict on having this done correctly. He told the council that to qualify for a CDBG Grant you have to be low to moderate income, alleviate slum or natural disaster, need to do an income survey, have a grievance policy and have public hearings. At the last hearing the projects discussed were street repairs or replacement, water system improvements, town hall/senior center, housing rehabilitation, housing demolition, and purchase of mobile homes for low income. He told the council that now that
