Resident comments regarding the Town of Hayden's proposed Alternative Expenditure Limitation-Home Rule Option

Mayor Smith commented the hearing was to have a discussion with the residents regarding the town's proposal of the alternative expenditure limitation of the Home Rule Option. There were no resident comments since no audience was present.

If the Home Rule Option is not passed by the voters, the state will set the expenditure limitation. But if it is passed by the voters the town will set the expenditure limitation.

Meantime the council members will need to go out and talk to the residents on the Home Rule Option that will be on ballot in the primary election in August.

ADJOURNMENT

The Public Hearing was adjourned by Mayor Smith at 5:40 p.m.
