5. Discussion and possible action on leaving the IGA for Police Protection with the Town of Winkelman at $100,000

Mayor Hetrick informed the council that he had met with Mayor Bracamonte from the Town of Winkelman and was told that the Town of Winkelman has already set their budget and $100,000 was allocated for the police protection. It was mentioned that if we do not accept the $100,000 and provide police protection, the Town of Winkelman has already talked with the Town of Kearny concerning police protection and they will be willing to cover the Town of Winkelman for $100,000 but will only come out if they are called out. The Town of Hayden Police Officers will still need to cover until the Kearny Police Department arrives on the scene. Mayor Hetrick told the council that the town would lose $100,000 and still need to respond. Mayor Hetrick told the council that next year he plans on meeting with Mayor Bracamonte in February to discuss the increase for police protection. Vice-Mayor Smith told the council that it was mentioned last year that there would need to be an increase this year. He mentioned that even if the budget has been approved, they can move the money around and add the increase for the police protection. Chief Villar told the council that she would be
